

“Summer at the Steps”

6th Annual Benefit for the Museum’s Interpretive Center June 27, 2015 - Menu & Music

~ MENU ~

Stationary hors d’oeuvres:

Assorted cheeses to include Irish cheese, Boursin, cheddar, goat cheese, smoked gouda and gruyere, displayed with crostini and assorted crackers

Passed hors d’oeuvres:

Hibachi Chicken Skewers ~ Beef Tenderloin Bruschetta (until 8pm)

Clam Chowder & Clam Cake Station:

Mugs of chowder served with a skewered clam cake

Carving station with chef:

Roasted Turkey Breast

cranberry mayonnaise ~ mayonnaise

Glazed Smoked Ham

whole-grain mustard ~ honey mustard

Artisan Rolls

Dessert Buffet:

Fruit & Cheese display with Mini Pastries

Coffee, decaffeinated coffee & assorted teas

Hosted Bar Serving:

Wine - Beer – Premium Liquors –Cordials

Sparkling Water & Soft Drinks

~ Open: 6:30-9pm ~ Cash: 9-10pm ~

~ MUSIC ~

Bagpipe Greeting

Joe Foley, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Newport, Pipe & Drum Band

Traditional Irish Music by The Publicans:

~ Mike Keshura: guitar ~ Sam Ruest: fiddle, mandolin ~ Al Gregoire: bodhran, harmonica

The Publicans are a Celtic group from Southeastern Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The band, which also includes Rich Danforth on the uilleann pipes, has been playing in the area for well over a decade and have a large following at popular venues including Aidan’s Pub in Bristol (RI) and the Saint James Pub in Fall River (MA), where they can be heard regularly. Besides the large repertoire of Celtic Tunes, the band plays countless Irish Songs with Mike on lead vocals and Al on harmony.