

Museum of Newport Irish History
NewportIrishHistory.org

August 17, 2020

Dear Members,

We are always pleased to share happenings of Irish historical or cultural interest for your "virtual enjoyment" during these challenging times, when we cannot gather in person.

Many of you will recall Cormac O'Malley's captivating lecture on the subject of his father, Ernie O'Malley, presented to a capacity crowd of Museum members in April 2019. Cormac continues his work to preserve his father's historical and literary legacy, along with the artistic legacy of his mother, Helen Hooker.

Now, Cormac O'Malley, together with director, Chris Kepple, invite you to join them for a special online premiere screening of their new film, an intimate portrait of a couple who made it their work to see Ireland not for how it was, for for what it could become.

A Call to Arts

A film about love, art and revolution in Ireland:

Helen Hooker and Ernie O'Malley's Journey

hosted by Cormac O'Malley & Chris Kepple

Wed, Aug. 19 at 1pm or 6pm

Click the below green button to view a 2-minute trailer of the film. Click the orange button to make a $20 donation for a ticket to the screening (once on page, scroll down and see click for $20 ticket on the right, across from "Short Summary").

"A Call to Arts"
trailer

$20 Tickets to Screening

After you make the $20 online donation, you will receive an email with an invitation and link to the event which will be hosted in ZOOM. Once the event is underway, you will also be given the Vimeo link to the film, itself.

Questions? Please contact Chris Kepple directly at chris.irvisions@gmail.com

Film Website

Museum of Newport Irish History

Mailing: PO Box 1378, Newport, RI 02840

Interpretive Center: 648 Lower Thames Street, Newport RI 02840

Email: NewportIrishHistory@gmail.com

Click Here for Museum Board of Directors Contact Info.

Visit the Museum Website

Membership Renewals

Like us on facebook.