

MUSEUM OF IRISH HISTORY RECEIVES GRANT

The Museum of Newport Irish History has received a $2,000 legislative grant from the Rhode Island House of Representatives. The grant will be used to enhance the museum's annual Michael F. Crowley Lectures series, which commences in the fall, and for enhancements to the displays at the Interpretive Center located at 648 Thames St. Pictured, from left, are Newport Mayor Harry Winthrop, museum president Mike Slein, Rep. Peter Martin, D-Newport, Anne Marie McNulty and museum board members Donna McCarthy and Maria Carroll.
