THE MUSEUM OF NEWPORT IRISH HISTORY IS SPONSORING A TALK
ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 31st, AT 3PM AT SALVE REGINA UNIVERSITY,
MCAULEY HALL, ROOM 105.

1999

The speaker will be Dr. Patricia Trainer O'Malley, Professor of History at Bradford College, Haverhill, Massachusetts.

Dr. O'Malley received her Masters and Doctorate degrees from Boston College, Her Ph.D for 17th-18th century English history.

Professor O'Malley was named Professor of the Year, 1999, and was the Abby Milton O'Neil Chair as Distinguished College Professor, 1985-1991.

Among Dr. O'Malley's numerous publications are:

The Irish in Haverhill, Massachusetts, Vol. I (1998);
The Irish in Haverhill, Massachusetts, Vol II (1999);
The Donovans of Dreenlamane (January 1997) ***
Missing Friends From Schull Parish (January 1999) ***
Letters to America from a Dying Sister (January 1998) ***

 Published in The Mizen Journal (Schull, Co. Cork, Ireland)

Dr. O'Malley has lectured frequently to local, regional and state-wide groups. Her interest in local Irish history was sparked by the discovery of over 300 letters to her grandfather (Daniel Donovan) sent from family in Ireland and from former neighbors who moved to America. The letters date from 1885 to 1910.

Professor O'Malley's talk will be "Searching for Newport's Missing Irish"

The talk is free and open to the public.. Light refreshments will be served following the talk.

Dr. O'Malley will have copies of her latest books which she will be pleased to sign.
