

THE FIRST MICHAEL F. CROWLEY

MUSEUM OF NEWPORT IRISH HISTORY LECTURE

Through the generosity of Paul Crowley and the LaForge Casino Restaurant, the Museum is cosponsoring a talk by D. John F. Quinn of Salve Regina University on Thursday, October 24th at 6PM.

Our talk will be followed by the LaForge's generous Hors d'oeuvres and plenty of time for private discussions with Dr. Quinn, and you'll have the opportunity to have John sign a copy of his newly published book, which will be available.

Dr. Quinn's talk, entitled "Temperance in Nineteenth Century Ireland and Irish America-- Father Mathew's Crusade", will be based on John's extensive research in Ireland and the U.S., which was the basis of his newly published book. His talk will be of interest to all, with some 'surprising' insights, and Newport connections.

AS SPACE IS LIMITED, RESERVATIONS ARE A MUST:

PLEASE CALL SKIP CARTER AT 683-4137 FOR RESERVATIONS.

AS USUAL, MEMBERS ARE FREE, AND NEW MEMBERS WILL BE FREE, ALSO. A DONATION OF $10 WILL BE REQUESTED FOR ALL OTHERS.

REMEMBER: THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24TH 6PM
